REPUBLICAN PARTY OF BEXAR COUNTY ENDORSES JACOB CHAPA FOR DISTRICT 7 CITY COUNCIL

SAN ANTONIO – After meeting and interviewing several candidates, Jeff McManus, Chairman of the Republican Party of Bexar County announced the endorsement of legal assistant, student, and lifelong District 7 resident Jacob Chapa in the race for San Antonio City Council, District 7.

“The Republican Party of Bexar County is proud to endorse Jacob Chapa for District 7 City Council. Jacob is an ambitious young man who proudly exhibits the values and principles that align not only with the Bexar County Republican Party but with the needs of the citizens as well,” said Chairman McManus. “Our country would be so much better if more people like Jacob stood up to bring the values and principles he exhibits.” Chairman McManus calls on all Bexar County Republicans to exercise their right to vote in the upcoming elections and to support candidates who aim to lower taxes, improve our city services, and support our law enforcement. Furthermore, to vote ‘NO’ on Proposition A.

Jacob Chapa graciously accepted, saying, “Thank you, Chairman McManus and the Republican Party of Bexar County, for endorsing my campaign and supporting my fight to improve the quality of life for District 7 citizens. Being a resident of District 7 my whole life has allowed me to clearly see the needs of our residents and pave a path towards solutions that they are democratically entitled to. This includes improving public safety by supporting our law enforcement agencies, tackling mental illness, revitalizing our infrastructure, and advocating for financial relief.”

Jacob Chapa is currently a legal assistant and will graduate in May with a bachelor’s degree in Political Science from UTSA. He is passionate about serving the needs of his community and is dedicated to improving quality of life in District 7 and the entire city of San Antonio.
