

The precincts have all been assigned to nearby Election Day Voting Centers. You may vote anywhere, but the Precinct Conventions must be convened at the location and address listed. The list is sorted by precinct number for your convenience.

If you are going to conduct the meeting, please pick up the packet of forms from the Republican judge on Election Day. Precinct Chairs may get the envelope anytime, and will serve as the Temporary Convention Chair. If no precinct chair is available, anyone who voted Republican in that precinct may pick up the convention packet at 7:00 p.m. and start the convention at 7:30 p.m. to elect delegates and to select resolutions to forward to the senatorial district convention. The instructions and forms are in the envelope.
